SECTION 4: BEHAVIOURAL CONDUCT - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ AND UNDERSTAND

Teach International staff have the right to:

- Bar a trainee from Teach International and practice teaching venues if their behaviour threatens the well being and / or continuously disrupts the learning environment of staff, trainers, trainees, or ESOL students and staff encountered during any practice teaching assignment. Recourse to any such decision would be addressed to the Academic Manager.

The Teach International Academic Manager has the right to:

- Require a trainee to withdraw from their course of study without recourse to refund, if their behaviour threatens the well being and / or continuously disrupts the learning environment of staff, trainers, trainees, or ESOL students and staff encountered during any practice teaching assignment.

SECTION 5: MEDICAL OR PSYCHOLOGICAL CONDITIONS - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ AND COMPLETE

For medical and psychological conditions, we encourage disclosure, so that we may discuss any possible learning and skills involvement issues by phone. This is so that we may endeavour to explain the difficulties which may face you and offer appropriate support, as we are able.

- I have no known medical or psychological conditions which may impact upon my ability to successfully complete this course;
- I choose not to disclose any know medical or psychological conditions which may impact upon my ability to successfully complete this course;
- I choose to disclose that I have known medical or psychological conditions which I understand may impact upon my ability to successfully complete this course.

Disclosure of medical condition(s):

NOTE: Dominant sight, speech and hearing conditions significantly affect your ability to accurately model and demonstrate productive language (speaking and writing).

Disclosure of psychological condition(s):

NOTE: We ask for a letter from an authorised practitioner for psychological conditions, which require medication other than prescribed by a GP, stating that the condition is not severe enough to hinder your ability to undertake a teaching post. If requested, we can send you a sample of a teaching job description.

SECTION 6: ENGLISH PROFICIENCY - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ AND COMPLETE

For the purpose of English language teaching, a native English speaker is someone who was educated in an English speaking education system from childhood and is presently competent with standard English usage. Additionally, English was the first language in the home environment and/or English was the commonly spoken language in the country of upbringing.

For any queries regarding the above definition and your circumstances, please contact the Academic Manager on (AU)1300 558 890 or (NZ)0800 832 243.

- I am a native English speaker, according to the above definition - go to Section 7.
 I am not a native English speaker - continue completing this section.

Practice Teaching for Certificate III and Certificate IV Applicants

There is a limitation on assistance Teach International can provide to non native English speakers because the partner schools Teach International work with in Australia and New Zealand require native English speakers teaching their students. In this case, one option is to use your own private students for practice teaching and another option is to complete the practice teaching requirements overseas where you are more likely to find TESOL teaching employment - in which case you can be assessed teaching your own students.

SECTION 7: TERMS AND CONDITIONS - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ AND UNDERSTAND

Foundation, Cert III & IV, Refresher courses

- The $200 deposit is non-refundable.
- The in-class component must be completed within 12 months of initial registration or the deposit amount will be forfeited.
- Due to Intellectual Property laws and restrictions, once a student has made the relevant payment and been sent their Online Instructions via email or post, no refund will be given.
- Should Teach International Pty Ltd cancel any course, participants are entitled to a full refund or transfer of funds to a future course.
- No refund is available to participants who leave before finalising the in-class component of the course unless a medical certificate is produced. In that case, fees may be refunded on a pro-rata basis. However, should participants wish to finalise incomplete modules in a future course, the original fee payment can be used as credit towards that course. Study must be undertaken within three months of the original in-class enrolment date.
- No refund of the Certificate III and Certificate IV upgrade fees will be given to participants who are given access to the relevant Certificate III and IV units and then choose not to complete them.
- You are able to defer an in-class course date once only; for further changes there will be an administration cost of $50.00.
- Full course fees, or the first instalment amount, are due and payable 10 days prior to commencement of the in-class component.
- Teach International allows a cooling-off period of two days from when a payment is made. If granted, refunds will exclude the $200 non-refundable deposit, and exclude the amount paid for access to Online components if they have been accessed by customer. A request for a refund within the cooling-off period must be sent in writing (letter or email) to the General Manager and received by Teach International prior to expiration of the two-day time frame.
- Teach International may consider a substitute attendee provided all course fees are paid in full and notice of a substitute attendee is provided at least two days prior to the in-class component. The substitute attendee will receive their own username and password.
- Course prices are subject to change without prior notification by Teach International.

SECTION 8: DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION STATEMENT - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ

The details disclosed on this Application form will only be accessible to authorised staff of Teach International.

Information about clients or staff of the college is never given to any third party except in those cases indicated below.

Teach International may be required to provide your contact details to the Training and Employment Recognition Council as part of the audit process to enable the Training and Employment Recognition Council to interview students about the training provided by the organisation.

SECTION 9: JOB GUARANTEE - ALL APPLICANTS TO READ AND UNDERSTAND

Teach International repeatedly gets positive e-mails from excited graduates who can't believe how quickly the job offers come in once they start the job pursuit process. Teach International equips graduates to conduct an educated and effective job search for themselves.

After completing the in-class component of any level course, you have 100 days to complete the Grammar online course and the first two online electives. The 100 days is not a course-completion time requirement, and longer time frames are usual to complete study at Certificate III and IV levels.

The stipulations of the job guarantee are as follows:

1. The guarantee period lasts for six months. It begins when you send your first job application and ends six months later. You must send your first application within six months of completing the in-class component of the course.
2. The compulsory online components of the course must be completed within 100 days of completing the in-class component of the course (Foundation course only).
3. The letter of introduction and résumé used in all job applications must follow the guidelines set out by Teach International. These must have been submitted to Teach International via the Student Centre within 30 days of the in-class component (please note: time spent awaiting approval does not count towards these 30 days). The graduate must be able to show copies of all correspondence from the job application process.
4. The graduate must apply for a minimum of 10 jobs in at least three countries within the timeframe of the job guarantee period. (This means you must apply for a total of at least thirty positions).
5. The graduate must follow up on all responses from schools within five days of receipt of correspondence.
6. The graduate, if having trouble finding a job, must seek assistance from Teach International (through his/her TESOL Trainers) within three months of commencing job pursuit.
7. The graduate must use contacts and assistance offered by Teach International through the student centre online and the in-class process.
8. After expiration of the six-month guarantee period, if the graduate has not been offered at least one job (with terms and conditions normal for that country) in one of the countries of choice (see list) a refund must be claimed in writing.
9. Teach International, after thorough evaluation of the refund request, will respond in writing. Any refund offer will be accompanied by a request that the graduate return the TESOL certificate, the TESOL training manual, plus the tax receipt with a note confirming that no use of this tax receipt for income tax purposes has been made prior to receiving the refund. The graduate must also cease to include any reference to his/her training on his/her resume.
10. If you are not considered a native speaker of English you will not be eligible for this guarantee.

We guarantee that graduates will find a teaching position in of the following locations as per Point 4 above:

Those with a completed university degree (in any discipline):	Those without a university degree:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• South Korea• Japan• Hong Kong• Taiwan• Vietnam• Thailand• Poland• Czech Republic• Spain* * for those with EU citizenship  for those with extensive teaching experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• China• Cambodia• Indonesia• Russia• Turkey• Azerbaijan• Kyrgyzstan• Kazakstan• Uzbekistan• Slovakia• Slovenia• Laos• All of Central/South America• Africa (via NGOs)

NB: Information is correct at time of printing. Government regulations change often which may affect work permit requirements.
